DEDICATION

We dedicate THE OAK to one who has been a kind, understanding, and sympathetic friend to all of us.

He has unselfishly and unassumingly given his time and talents toward guiding and inspiring the youth of today toward becoming worthy leaders of tomorrow.

Under his direction and encouragement, the members of our Glee Club have gained a new appreciation and enjoyment of music. Working with him, we have all grown to love him.

For giving us guidance, insight, courage, and understanding, and for being our true friend, we take great pride and pleasure in dedicating this volume of THE OAK to Reverend David C. Moss.

CLASS MOTTO
"Tis not too late to seek a newer world."

CLASS HISTORY

One September morning, twelve years ago, a group of scared little six-year olds came to McLeansville School for the first time. Some of us ended up with torn dresses or overalls, or with tears in our eyes, others were setting out on this great adventure bravely. There are only eleven of this group graduating this year. They are Kay Reese, Marshall White, Russell Smith, Kyle Stewart, Mary Jane McLean, Louise Dawson, Marie Hill, Sara Garrison, Marie Lowdermilk, Gerry Kennedy, and Nancy Gerringer. Some have moved away and others have married.

Somehow between our fighting over the little red chair, our failures, our achievements, and the kindness of our teacher, Mrs. Mildred Smathers, we were promoted to Mrs. Earnest Smith's second grade. This year Barbara La Marr and Elsie Hutchens joined our class.

Then came the third grade and Miss Gertude Rule. Eva Nell Kirkman, David Kirkman, and Alton Kennedy became our class mates but Barbara LaMarr moved away this year.

In the fourth grade Jerry Newsome joined our class. Mrs. Cora Clapp showed us just how big the world was through her teaching of geography. This year Gerry Kennedy moved away.

When we entered the fifth grade we were separated for the first time. Mrs. Vernon Morton, taught one section of our class and Mrs. Coltrane taught the other. Then at Thanksgiving our school burned. We attended class in the Community Building. This year we were glad to welcome Joyce Owens to our class.

Next we were sent to the sixth grade with Mrs. Apple and Mrs. Owens as our teachers. We learned to make pot holders and to spatter paint in addition to our regular studies.

Mrs. Owens and Mrs. Hopkins were our pilots through our seventh year. Most of us worked hard and received a "go ahead" sign to the eighth grade.

This year we met our first man teacher. He was Mr. Guyer. After nine months of struggle, Mr. Guyer sent us up to the ninth grade.

Now we were at last in High School! Mr. Don Haithcox was our home room teacher. Other faculty members were Mrs. Garland Clapp, Mrs. Jewell Kearns, Mr. Daniel Motley, Mr. E. A. Adams, and Mr. Herman Owens. As most first-year high school students, we had to buckle down and work harder. We welcomed David Moss to our class and were very glad to have Gerry Kennedy rejoin it after leaving us in the fourth grade

In our sophomore year Mr. Bowden and Mrs. Sarah Haithcox became new members of our faculty. Mrs. Haithcox, who was also our homeroom teacher, sent us on to the eleventh grade with flying colors. Harry Oakley became a new member of our class this year and we were happy to welcome Barbara LaMarr back again as our classmate.

How happy we were then to be classed as Juniors. Things really started happening now. First we selected our class rings. Then our Junior Play which was "HEADIN FOR A WEDDIN." And last was our Junior-Senior Prom which was the most important event of the year, and we thought the best prom ever given. But none of these things would have gone off nearly so well without the wonderful help and guidance of Mr. and Mrs. Motley. This year Wayne Clapp and Nancy Hicks joined our class. Mrs. Whisonant and Mrs. Motley were the new members of the faculty.

At long last we had reached our goal. We were Seniors! We were now at the top looking down on the others. This year we had quite a few new faculty members. They were Miss Marie Essa, Mrs. Avery, and Mr. Hicks. We were busy as little bees the whole year. First we ordered our invitations, then caps and gowns, then diplomas, and with much work we published the annual. We gave our Senior Play which was "MUMBO-JUMBO". We took part in May Day. The most important event was at hand. This was GRADUATION.

And then what next! Some plan to enter college; some to take full-time jobs; and others to get married. No matter which the case may be, we realize that our lives are really just beginning and that "Tis not too late to seek a newer world."

LAST WILL AND TESTAMENT

We, the graduating class of 1957, realizing that the close of our school days are near at hand, think it wise to leave something to those who in the future will undertake to fill our places.

In the course of our high school days, naturally, we have accumulated various and valuable possessions; our years have been fruitful. We have acquired a vast store of knowledge along with other things that will help us through our lives. Since we are burdened with some superfluous possessions, we think it wise to dispose of them; too, we realize that the school would have a great loss without us or our valuable possessions. The upperclassmen, especially the Juniors, would be handicapped if we took all our valuable assets.

To our faithful principal, Mr. Bowden, we leave our wishes that the oncoming students will be more willing to abide by the rules and regulations.

To our sponsor, Mrs. Whisonant, to whom we are very much indebted for her leadership and guidance, we leave our heartfelt gratitude.

To our teachers, who are our friends and helpers, we leave our most sincere thanks for their helpfulness and cooperation in leading us to our goal.

To individuals we bequeath the following characteristics:

We, Sara Garrison and Alton Kennedy, leave our superlative of most athletic to Barbara Jobe and Harold Apple.

We, Gerry Kennedy and Russell Smith, leave our superlative of most attractive to Jannette Brown and Glen Raye Cook.

We, Nancy Hicks and David Kirkman, leave our superlative of most popular to Pat Anderson and S. G. Gannon.

We, Kay Reese and Wayne Clapp, leave our superlative of most thoughtful to Faye Kellam and Benny Register.

We, Marie Lowdermilk and Marshall White, leave our superlative of cutest to Pat LaMarr and Jerry Clapp.

We, Barbara La Marr and David Moss, leave our superlative of best all around to Thomas Sears and Pat La Marr.

We, Mary Jane McLean and Kyle Stewart, leave our superlative of most likely to succeed to Faye Kellam and Thomas Sears.

We, Joyce Owens and Harry Oakley, leave our superlative of most dependable to Jo Anne Smith and Bobby Whitsell.

We, Ola Mae Hopkins and Jerry Newsome, leave our superlative of most carefree to Bonnie Welborn and Joe Sam Edmonds.

We, Howard Collins and Eva Nell Kirkman, leave our superlative of best dressed to Bobby Isley and Jean Raye Martin.

We, Marie Hill and Nancy Gerringer, leave our superlative of friendliest to Carolyn Braswell and Mollie King.

We, Elsie Hutchins and Louise Dawson, leave our superlative of most congenial to Rachel Lowe and Betty Lou Garner.
